-Normal Exams and extraordinary exams (100%)

-Teaching Methodologies:

1. Lecture Method
2. Study cases
3. Group work
4. Topic discussion

6. COHERENCE BETWEEN TEACHING METHODOLOGIES AND OBJECTIVES

The basic goal of the curricular unit is to impart knowledge in a way that students are able to apply it in practical situations, related to real life.

To achieve each of the objectives specified in the syllabus all the methodologies indicated will be used, except for group work, which will focus on themes related to the tourism area. The basic concepts of Law, Labour law, business law, will be mainly reached through the expositive and interrogative method, in a first approach. Afterwards, problems and cases to be analysed will be solved. The knowledge of legislation will be reached mainly through the analysis of the legislation itself, which will be followed by the resolution of problems and study of cases. The evaluation itself has a component that integrates the realization of an Individual Project.
